

SHARP

Procedure for Dealing with Head lice

On discovery of head lice in a child's hair the parent/ caregiver will be contacted and asked to treat the head lice before returning their child to the programme.

Signs will be posted on the main doors into the programme to notify other parents that head lice is within the programme and advise them to check their children's hair.